WATSON BOOM LOOKING GOOD

Robert G. Tucker, Writing in Cincinnati Enquirer, Says it Has More Serious Aspect.

THAN SOME NOW BELIEVE

Rushville Man in Communication With Many Republicans Who Think he Should be President.

That James E. Watson of this city is receiving encouraging reports from throughout the country from men who believe a campaigner of his type should be the Republican candidate for president in 1916 and that his boom is much more serious than some Republican party workers believe, are assertions made by Robert G. Tucker, in his weekly letter concerning Indiana politics published in the Cincinnati Enquirer Sunday. Concerning the Watson candidacy, he says:

The policy of the Republican state organization will be neutral toward the presidential candidates as long as there is an understanding that Charles W. Fairbanks and James E. Watson may make the race. Very little has been said lately regarding Watson as a presidential prospect, but it is the understanding that he and his close friends are not without hope that he will be nominated at the convention next year.

The Watson boom has a more serious aspect than some of the party workers believe. Watson has received much encouragement from western states. He has been in communication with many Republicans throughout the country who seem to think that a campaigner of his type would measure up to the requirements of 1916.

Among the Indiana Republican leaders the preponderance of the sentiment seems to be that this is the year for Fairbanks, and that he stands a very good show of being nominated. The State Committee, including Chairman Hays and Secretary Henley, has refrained from attempting to promote the interests of Watson or Fairbanks, but as soon as it is determined which shall be the Indiana candidate the organization will be behind him.

Chairman Hays would rather be accused of leaning to far backwards than to be charged with using the organization for any candidate for the Presidency, the Senate or Government. The policy of the committee will be "hands off," where there is more than one candidate for an office. If Chairman Hays can help it the committee will not be accused honestly of trying to say who shall or shall not go on the ticket.

Recently there is said to have been some friction among the close friends of Watson and members of the state organization. The Watson men have been afraid that Chairman Hays would not give Watson the same consideration that other party leaders have received. One well-known Republican was approached by the Watson men with the proposition that he run for Chairman to succeed Hays. He turned it down, stating that he favors Hays and that no one could defeat him.

Some of the Watson men have been inclined to criticize Chairman Hays on the ground that he did not "play up" Watson in the last campaign in a manner commensurate with his ability as an orator. Chairman Hays did not make Watson a headliner, but wherever requests came for speeches by him the committee promptly made the assignments. It is maintained by Chairman Hays' friends that there is no

RUSHVILLE MAN SET FREE TODAY

Harry Rainey Released at Connersville When Man Who Filed Charge Failed to Appear.

A HOLD-UP WAS ALLEGED

(By United Press.)

Connersville, Ind., April 26.—When "Budge" King, of this city, failed to appear in mayor's court this morning, the charge which he preferred against Harry Rainey, of Rushville, was dismissed. King lodged a complaint against Rainey, charging that the Rushville man struck him on the head and stole his money. Rainey was arrested Saturday night and held until this morning when the prosecuting witness was not to be found.

The police believe that there was no foundation for the charge. They think that Rainey and King were likely together Saturday night, and that they possibly quarreled and King caused Rainey's arrest. Two other Rushville men were reported to be implicated, but there were no charges against them.

THIEVES ENTER A GROCERY STORE

Break Into John Kelley's Place of Business Saturday Night and Steal Six Dollars.

ENTER THROUGH A SCREEN

The grocery store of John Kelly in North Main street was entered some time Saturday night and six dollars taken from the cash drawer. Entrance was gained by forcing a lock on a screen door at the rear of the store. Nothing else of value was missed from the store. Mr. Kelly always left some change in the cash drawer for use on Monday morning and it was this change that was taken.

The police were notified, but as yet have no clew. Saturday night robberies have been a common occurrence now for the past few weeks. One week ago the meat market of Harry Kramer was entered and some money taken from the cash register.

JUDGE ANDERSON IS SERIOUSLY ILL

Famous Jurist Taken Sick in Evansville From Ptomaine Poisoning.

CONDITION NOT DANGEROUS

(By United Press.)

Evansville, Ind., April 26.—Judge A. B. Anderson of the United States district court for Indiana was today seriously ill at the St. George hotel here from ptomaine poisoning. A physician and nurse were in constant attention. His condition was pronounced "serious but not dangerous." His temperature today was 102.

Judge Anderson presided over the celebrated dynamite conspiracy and the Terre Haute election conspiracy cases. It was his ruling more than anything else that brought an end to the libel suit of Theodore Roosevelt against the New York World and the Indianapolis News over the Panama canal controversy.

Judge Anderson was taken ill yesterday at Terre Haute while enroute here to hold court. The court session was today postponed until October. Judge Anderson said he attributed his illness to canned tomatoes eaten in Indianapolis yesterday.

J. T. Arbuckle, grand master of the Indiana Odd Fellows was in Greensburg today where he took part in the celebration of the ninety-sixth anniversary of the order.

LODGE OBSERVES ITS ANNIVERSARY

Odd Fellows Commemorating Passing of Ninety-Sixth Year Since Its Organization.

GROWN TO 3,000,000 MEMBERS

Hundred and Twenty Members of the Rushville Lodge Hear Sermon by Rev. D. Ira Lambert.

The Rushville lodge of Odd Fellows celebrated the 96th anniversary of its founding Sunday at the First Presbyterian church, the members attending in a body. There were approximately one hundred and twenty present. The Rev. D. Ira Lambert preached a sermon in keeping with the occasion, referring in his remarks to the fact that the lodge had grown from a few members to three million in less than a century.

The special music for the occasion was furnished by a men's chorus, an innovation in musical programs here, and it was greatly appreciated and complimented.

He took his text from Psalm 90, 5:1; "Lord Thou has been our dwelling place in all generations."

"Many of the greatest minds of all ages," he said, "have tried to comprehend life and many are the beautiful poems that have been written upon it. But they all pale into insignificance in comparison with this sublime message of revealed truth, with its infinite and eternal sweep, blending both time and eternity under the sovereign sway of God."

"If we shall rightly understand it we must go back and find it as it springs from God and His image."

"The origin of the soul is with God. He was its original home and He still continues to be its refuge and dwelling place if its owner be subject unto Him. But situated as we are in this world it is a hard thing to brush away all the barriers and be at home with God. And so the soul looks forward and longs not so much for the glories of Heaven as to be at home with God. And it not only looks forward but backward to the home elements that bind it unto God through the beautiful visions of long ago. There is no chord in the harp of life which finds such a universal response in the heart of humanity as that of home. Go where you will and put your ear to the heart throb of humanity, and you will find echoed again and again the sympathies and emotions of home."

"But the trouble is that individuals as a rule fail to understand the true significance of this supreme appeal to their life. After all what is it

What Is Fashion?

Fashion may be described as an evidence of the struggle between class and mass.

Class is ever taking up something new in the effort to be distinctive.

Mass is constantly coming pell mell after.

And so the modes are ever changing. What was new today may be old tomorrow.

The fact that the advertising columns of this newspaper are constantly telling the story of the changing styles make them vitally interesting to the average woman.

She reads because she wants the touch of fashion at her finger tips always.

ground for an intimation that he did not tote squarely with Watson. It is understood that Chairman Hays has come to a definite understanding with Watson and that the latter has no idea now of opposing his re-election. On the other hand Chairman Hays is not opposing Watson for the Presidency or for any other position.

The general understanding is that Chairman Hays, Secretary Henley and practically all of the members of the Republican State Committee will be re-elected without opposition. Henley is an appointee of Chairman Hays and will be retained as Secretary.

RAILWAY EMPLOYES FIGHTING EMPLOYES

(By United Press.)

Chicago, Apr. 26.—Chicago car employees, both on the elevated and surface lines plan an attempt to put their unions on record as opposed to the jitney bus. Resolutions may be adopted calling upon union men and sympathizers throughout the United States to boycott the jitneys because they present a menace to street car employees.

Statistics of the Chicago elevated and surface lines companies show that the profits are made only on short run passengers. The strap hanger always is carried at a hundred per cent profit.

The jitney it is feared, will do away with the strap hanger and will lift the short run passenger from the car. The consequent injury to the street car companies is dreaded by the union men on the theory that lower wages may be an outcome.

that constitutes a home? It is not in the wood or brick or stone which constitutes its structure. Not in costly furnishings nor elegant paintings. It is rather the loving hearts and kind deeds which make home, and when these are there the veriest hovel may seem to stretch itself to the very skies and be laden with Golcondaian splendor and rich with the perfumed breezes of the evening zephyrs.

"But that which stands back of it all is the purity and beauty of the child life as it stands near to God—its first and everlasting dwelling place and underlying all the ambitions of mankind is this undying home element which makes it yearn for a renewal of the things which bind it unto God, in whose image it was made.

"The great need of mankind is that that they may go back and find the home elements of life and ever keep them supreme in all their interests. First, of these stand truth or purity. In the prime of life man often feels that he cannot go back and have renewed this home element of the soul. But while man can never again stand in the place of childhood's innocence, he may go back and find again the home elements of truth and purity. Second, stands the great home element of faith or confidence. 'This is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith.' In the realm of business, in the realm of public life, in the inner recesses of a man's heart this is the great motive power of life. Not only must there be faith in God, but faith in mankind as well. The greatest need of this age is a new confidence in one another. Third, the home element of love is absolutely essential in the home elements of life. Without it the soul can never stand complete. Not only must it be love unto God but love unto our fellowmen. About Ben Adham asked of the angel who wrote the names of those who loved the Lord that he might be recorded simply as one who loved his fellowmen. But when the record was complete About's name stood first amongst those who loved their Lord.

"The key to the best of life is that which unlocks the door of life through the heart of the little child. In the glorious things which were promised by the old prophets through the kingdom which was to be supreme in the glorious days of the golden age to come, the mightiest forces thereof were to be led by the little child. A thousand years later, upon the mountain peaks of thought and feeling the son of God declares that admission into the kingdom can be secured only upon the principles of simplicity of childhood, and again, that he who would be greatest in that kingdom, must become as a little child.

"And so what is needed in the midst of the great battles of life, is that we shall keep awake the elements which bind us back unto the purity of the soul as it comes from the hands of God; that we shall never lose sight of that vision, that the image of God may be renewed in us."

Women in Arms!

Think of it!

Women in arms—fighting the battles of their country!

The bitterness and horrors of this war should be brought forcibly home to all civilized people by the action of the women of France.

When fighting becomes necessary it is assumed to be the exclusive province of man to engage in the active fray.

And yet this frightful war has reached the stage where the women of Paris are recruiting a regiment of soldiers among their own sex for duty in the field.

Men are needed on the battle line, and this regiment of women soldiers will shoulder their rifles and convey ammunition and provision trains, garrison conquered territory and perform other field duty necessary in order to relieve men who are needed at the front.

Women in arms!

Has the civilization of this world fallen so low that the mother of man must sink her sex and expose her fair breast to the mutilation of shot and shell?

Must she face the horrors of the battlefield the rigors of a campaign and the pestilence of armed camps in order that kings, emperors and fools may satiate their cravings for official murder?

Women in arms!

Is the lust of man for power so great that the sacredness of womanhood must be brushed aside, her frailty trampled in the dust, her privacy outraged by the glare of camp life?

God forbid!

The patriotism of these women is sublime!

It has few parallels in history.

But what a disgrace to mankind—what a blow to our blood bespattered civilization!

Women Are Active

That the women of Indiana will be a force to be contended with in the next campaign is indicated by activity apparent already within the Legislative Council of Indiana Women. A plan has been devised to ask each affiliated organization to prepare data on legislation it desires at the next meeting of the legislature. It is also proposed that the number of delegates from each afflicted organization be increased from two to five, the question to be decided at the October meeting.

Suggestions for a community meeting in every rural school in the state have been made to further the work of the council. The meetings would be held in co-operation with the school authorities and the program would include a discussion of the Indiana primary law. It is planned to distribute the record of candidates in each district over the state.

What Our Neighbors Are Talking About

A Word of Caution

(Washington Herald)

Republicans all should unite, we think, in insisting that the candidates and their active supporters shall not lose sight of the important fact that it is the duty of the partisans in the primaries to conduct themselves that what is said and done in these primaries may not militate against the success of the nominees in the succeeding election. We all should remember, first of all, that the preliminary contests are among Republicans and that the candidates all republicans. It will not be an easy thing to avoid in the heat of the canvass acts that necessarily will lead to embarrassing situations after tickets are named. But if all of us will make up our minds to counsel fairness and advise and practice moderation and tolerance, much of the danger may be escaped.

The Republican newspapers may do a great deal to promote harmony in the primaries, not only by timely admonitions, but by setting proper examples. It is too much to expect that the Republican papers of the state will preserve a neutrality which shall make for absolute impartiality, however desirable that might be from a point of view entirely politic. But they can refrain from personalities, and without the newspapers as vehicles for the distribution of their extreme opinions, the more excitable of the partisans will be under a throttling handicap. The newspapers are masters of the situation, if they will but use their good offices.

So that all of us are under obligation to reserve our most effective fire for the common enemy, making our family fights pillow fights only to the end that nothing shall obstruct the progress to the common goal for which we are striving, the restoration of the Republican party to national and state control. The state-wide direct primary is not a theory now but a condition, however distasteful it may be to the greater part of the citizens of Indiana. Therefore, let us be sane and dignified, and not make a Kilkenny cat fight out of it. Every thrust among the Republicans in the primaries is sure to be met by a parry and this followed by a counter thrust, and it would be a most foolish policy for us to cut up our own forces.

HOOSIER HISTORY

(Prepared by the United Press from Records in State Library)

Since the first occupation of Indiana the agricultural industry has been one of the most important. At one national corn show in 1907 out of the 8,000 exhibits from all corn growing states Indiana corn was declared superior, taking 26 prizes. The advent of the canning industry has stimulated farming to such an extent that it is estimated more than 2,900,000 bushels of tomatoes are needed each year from the farms to supply the canners. Agriculture has been added to the school curriculums.

Mouth Breathing

A mouth breather is either sick or deformed. Perhaps both. Deformed teeth, diseased tonsils and adenoids cause mouth breathing. As mouth breathing is very often attended by respiratory diseases and death it behooves parents, who have mouth breathers among their children, to be up and doing. Don't believe a mouth breather "will out grow it." Some doctors say so, but they are ignorant. If your doctor tells you that your child will outgrow deformed teeth, diseased tonsils and adenoids, just pay him what you might owe, and seek one of more recent vintage. No, your mouth breathing child will not outgrow the trouble. Either have him repaired by a good dentist or a good surgeon, or lay aside a sinking fund to pay for his funeral.

Mouth breathing is frequently the causes of constricted chests, stooping shoulders, limited breathing capacity—the forerunners of consumption, bronchitis, laryngitis, sore throat, asthma, heart disease, mental dullness, defective speech and malnutrition.

As a sin of omission is equally as bad as a sin of commission, it therefore follows—if a child is sick or dies from neglect the sin is as great as if it was killed with arsenic or a tomahawk. At present we have laws to punish parents who poison or kill their children by violence and in the not distant future we will have sufficient practical and enlightened laws to punish parents for killing their children through neglect. Even neglect from ignorance itself is a sin and disgrace. And let us note here that strong men seek knowledge and make opportunity and do the right thing. Weak men don't.

Dr. J. N. Hurty.

NEW POLITICAL ERA IN CHICAGO

William Hale Thompson Elected by Largest Plurality Ever Given to be Inaugurated Tonight.

HAS SEVERAL NEW POLICIES

Plans to Make Big Fight Against Unemployed—Intends to Have Good Police Force

(By United Press.)

Chicago Apr. 26.—Elected mayor of Chicago by the greatest plurality ever given a major candidate in the Windy City. William Hale Thompson tonight will be formally inaugurated head of America's second largest city. Retiring Mayor Carter H. Harrison, was to welcome his successor and conduct the simple but impressive ceremonies.

Thompson enters into his duties with several radical and unique policies in regard to alleviation of the unemployment problem, conduct of the city's affairs, and police warfare on crime and criminals.

Perhaps the most unique policy the new mayor has declared for, is his planned fight against unemployment. It is his expressed plan to have the council vote a sum sufficient to give every patrolman on the street a dollar bill. This dollar is to be given, at the policeman's discretion, to men or women out of work, whom the policeman knows to be deserving. Thompson's theory is that the policeman is closer to the average citizen than all the charity organization agents in the world and is thereby the one to do such work. When this dollar is expended, it will be replaced.

As to the business side of conducting the affairs of the fourth city in the world. Thompson has declared he will endeavor, wherever possible, to surround himself with successful business men, large or small who will be willing to emulate his example and give up four years of their lives to the work of the city.

Mayor Thompson has strong opinions regarding Chicago's crime situation. He has not yet gone into detail as to what his remedies for the wholesale robberies, street hold-ups etc., will be, but he has said that crime and immorality can and must be checked by a honest and efficient police force. He intimated that he would try to get as chief of police a man regardless of political affiliation, who can be absolutely fearless in upholding the laws.

BILL POSTING TRUST ON TRIAL

Starts in Federal Court in Chicago Before Judge Landis of Standard Oil Fame

CONTROL OF OUTDOOR SPACE

Government Alleges That 32 Concerns Have Been Gobbled up and Put Out of Business.

(By United Press.)

Chicago, Apr. 26.—The government and the alleged bill posting "trust" grappled today. Before Judge Kenesaw Mountain Landis, who plastered the $29,000,000 fine on the Standard Oil, trial was scheduled today of the government's anti-trust dissolution suit against the bill posting combination, known as the "association of Bill Posters and Distributors in the United States and Canada."

Control of practically all the outdoor display and billboard advertising in the two countries by the "trust" is charged by the government which has secured dozens of depositions from big advertisers said to have been victimized and "held up."

United States District Attorney Clyne, in charge of the prosecution, says it will be proven that seven advertising concerns collect one sixth in all advertising contracts of the combination and cover 3,500 towns, and no outsider can get a foot on space without dealing with them.

The concerns named as the controlling factors of the association are the Associated Bill Posters and Protective Co. of New York; A.M. Briggs & Co., of Chicago; Nordem & Co., of Pittsburgh; Foster Selling Co., of St. Louis; Enos Troop, Inc. of Chicago; A. de Montzulin & Co. of Cincinnati; and C. E. Atkinson & Co. of Atlanta.

The government alleges that 32 former concerns interested in the business have been "gobbled up" and put out of business by the trust.

GIBBONS TO FIGHT AT 145 POUNDS

Followers Say he Will be Weakened
at This Weight in His Fight
With McFarland

BATTLE IS FOR TEN ROUNDS

BY JAMES O'DEA

Chicago, Apr. 26.—In both McFarland and Gibbons camps chief talk these days is about poundage. The followers of the scientific stockyards marvel contend that at 145 pounds, the weight agreed upon in the contract that calls for a ten round battle within a few weeks, Gibbons will be greatly weakened. To offset this argument Gibbons followers today pointed to their favorite's knockout of Young Ahearn and to the fight in which he handed a sleep wallop to Young Mike Donovan, Gibbons weighed in at 145 just before each of these scraps. He also weighed 145 when he dropped Wildcat Ferns for the count.

The Gibbons followers frankly admit Packey's prowess and skill, but there enters into the argument the old question of what the cleverest can and cannot do after the long absence that McFarland has had from the ring.

However, much the fighters and their managers may differ in regard to the outcome of the battle, they agree on one important matter. That is the size of the purse. Bidding between Milwaukee and New York managers was active within twelve hours after the agreement was announced and close to a record sum for a 10-round battle was expected from the start.

STATE MEETING MAY COME HERE

Boom For Rushville For F. A. M.
State Convention in July is Sarted Sunday.

GASOLINE ECONOMY TEST

Riverside Track, Best in Indiana, is
Drawing Card That Rushville
Has to Offer.

With the meeting here Sunday of 100 motorecyclists for a gasoline economy test under the direction of the F. A. M., the official governing body of the motorcycle world, movement was started to bring the state convention of the F. A. M. to this city. The convention will likely be held sometime in July and will be a three day's event. The state convention has always been held in Indianapolis, but with Rushville possessing the best mile track in the state at Riverside park, the members yesterday started a movement to bring the event here.

J. C. Ellerman has charge of the local end of the arrangements and is confident that he can bring the state convention to Rushville if given the right kind of encouragement. The mile track at Riverside is the best in the state, according to experienced riders of motorcycles, and the crowd of 100 that was here Sunday were elated over drawing the meet to this city. Definite arrangements are expected in a few days.

The state convention of the F. A. M. is a big thing and would attract motorcycle men to this city from all over the state. Sixty riders from Indianapolis and twenty-five from Richmond were in the crowd that was here yesterday. Visitors were also here from Greensburg, Shelbyville and all the surrounding towns. A large crowd gathered at Riverside to watch the tests.

No speed tests were indulged in, the riders sticking closely to the economy tests. The winner of the sidecar event, carrying an extra passenger, went twelve and three-quarter mile on a quart of gasoline, other cars in the event averaged about twelve and one-quarter miles to a quart.

The twin cylinder machines averaged twelve and one-half miles to twelve and three-quarter miles to the pint of gasoline. The highest record made for a single cylinder machine was thirty-one miles on a quart of gasoline. Other records averaged up to twenty-six miles on a single quart of gasoline. In making these about fifty miles an hour.

START FIGHT ON VOTING MACHINES

Political Leaders at Terre Haute
Are Now Dead Opposed to
This Form of Balloting

IT CAN BE MANIPULATED

(By United Press.)

Terre Haute, Ind., April 26.—Local political leaders representing the new era for Terre Haute are busily engaged in fostering sentiment against the voting machine—and this despite the fact that the Indiana Supreme Court only recently interpreted the election laws to the effect that the voting machine is legal.

The legal machine can be manipulated; it does not safeguard Mr. Voter; it is the ready tool of the corrupt politician, say these new leaders, and it must go.

"The disclosure by election crooks in the Indianapolis election corruption conspiracy trial have taken away whatever confidence might previously have been felt that the machines could not be tampered with" says an editorial in a local paper. "Since the trial of Roberts and his fellow conspirators at Indianapolis, there is no doubt that the machines can be 'fixed.' The voting machine must go. The most that ever could be said in their favor was that they made possible quick election returns. But why so much haste especially since it has been proved that haste is at the expense of honest and careful voting?"

OPTION ELECTION TODAY AT ELKHART

City is Voting for Fourth Time on
Liquor Question With 20
Saloons Involved

"WET" THREE TIMES BEFORE

(By United Press.)

Elkhart, Ind., April 26.—This city was today voting in its fourth local option election with twenty-two saloons involved. In the three preceding elections the dries have been shown a gradual gain, but unless the gain is more rapid this time the wets will win by nearly 200 votes.

The wet majorities in the three earlier elections were as follows: in 1909, 806; in 1911, 458; in 1913, 305.

Goshen in the same county, was an interested bystander today. Goshen votes May 3 on the fate of its eleven saloons. Should Elkhart vote wet it might turn Goshen that way, although the wet majority in Goshen in 1913 was only 32 votes.

Elkhart county went dry under the county unit law, but when that was repealed Goshen and Elkhart voted wet.

JITNEY DRIVERS ARE WORKING FOR THEMSELVES

(By United Press.)

Kansas City, Apr. 26.—Over three hundred individuals are in the rapid transit business here. That means that three hundred men are running their own jitneys—are in business for themselves.

At the recent hearing on a proposed drastic jitney ordinance several women appeared for their husbands demanding that the ordinance be killed and explaining that their husbands had been out of work when the jitney craze arrived; that they mortgaged their homes to buy a second hand car and were now independent and doing a good business.

Perhaps fifty of the cars in operation are owned by auto livery firms but with no franchise required to operate, the field remains open so that every man with a few hundred dollars capital can go into business for himself. Heretofore the rapid transit business was only for capitalists.

GOOD NEWS

Many Rushville Readers Have Heard it and Profited Thereby.

"Good news travels fast," and the bad back sufferers in Rushville are glad to learn where relief may be found. Many a lame, weak and aching back is bad no more, thanks to Doan's Kidney Pills. Our citizens are telling the good news of their experience with this tested remedy. Here is an example worth reading:

Samuel A. Brown, R. R. No. 10, Rushville, says: "I had a severe attack of backache and it got worse every day. Finally, the trouble got so bad that I could hardly raise my foot above the ground. When I stooped, I thought my back would break. Someone advised me to try Doan's Kidney Pills and I got a box. I was very much surprised at the prompt way in which they stopped the trouble. In a few days I was free from pain."

CANAL ROUTE IS STILL IN DOUBT

Board of Army Engineers Receive Report of Recent Survey But Refuse to Comment

BELIEVE IT WILL BE BUILT

South Bend and Michigan City Pulling for Northern Route—From Toledo to Chicago

Fort Wayne, Ind., April 26.—Although the members of the board of army engineers met here today to receive the reports of Captain Lewis H. Watkins, who has had charge of the government survey of routes for the proposed Toledo Fort Wayne and Chicago barge canal, it was explained that no decision as to the feasibility of the canal will be forthcoming from the board at this or any other time. Major P. S. Bond, of Cleveland explained that the board does not make the decision, but reports its findings to the secretary of war who makes such recommendations to congress as he sees fit. The preliminary surveys have cost about $50,000.

Members of the board who were here today included Col. W. V. Judson of Chicago, Major Bond and Col. Millis of Newport, R. I.

The board members would not be interviewed today concerning the canal. They said that their only confidence would be General D. C. Kingman, chief of engineers. They are expected to report favorably for the canal.

Boosters of the canal project have little doubt, however that the recommendations of the army board will favor the canal. One of the questions still in doubt is the route of the canal. There are two proposed routes, the southern and the northern. The southern route includes Huntington, Wabash and Rochester, three cities that have been working hard for the waterway. It is believed that if the canal is viewed favorably the southern route will be chosen. Fort Wayne is neutral in this controversy, for it will get the canal with either route. The Chicago Association of Commerce however, is pulling for the southern route.

South Bend, on the other hand, is pulling with Michigan City for the northern route.

Perry A. Randall, president of the Erie and Michigan Deep Waterways association, illustrating the utility of the proposed canal, said:

"The highest rate charged for hauling freight by railroad is at least $4 a ton per thousand miles. The same ton can be hauled a thousand miles over the Chicago barge for $2 per ton. The canal will have a yearly carrying capacity of 40,000,000 tons, it is understood, and figuring on this basis, the saving in one year in rates would be $80,000,000, a sum equal to the entire cost of building the canal if the United States government is required to pay every cent of the expenses from Toledo to Chicago."

Never since the canal was first proposed seven years ago has there been such enthusiasm for it, according to Mr. Randall. He says he has received assurance that every congressman from New York, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Ohio, Indiana, and Illinois will vote for an appropriation to build the waterway.

COMPARED TO BIG RAILROADS

Just as Great Trans-Continental Lines Are Laid Across Country, So Are Trenches Built.

PASS THROUGH SMALL TOWNS

Visit to Neuve Chappelle, Which is Now on "The Main Line," is Fully Described.

NOTE: The following is the first of a series of stories from the British front, written by William C. Shepherd, United Press staff correspondent, and the only American representing an individual American press organization who is now with General Sir John French's army under official credentials.

The second story in the series will be printed Tuesday.

BY WILLIAM G. SHEPHERD. (Copyright 1915 by United Press.) (U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

(Copyrighted in Great Britain.) With the British Army, Northern France, April 16 (By mail to New York)—Neuve Chappelle is the new head that General French has just threaded onto the 400 mile string of trenches which Madame Europe wears upon her breast.

Just as the great trans-continental railroads of the United States pass impressively through small towns, so the great trans-continental trenches have had their route bent by the great English general to take in the town of Neuve Chappelle.

I find the residents of the city extremely proud of the distinction. This is probably because they personally helped General French in his task of trench bending. There are no French people remaining here; in fact there are no houses remaining. This showery afternoon a rainbow is shining on a huge black cloud over Neuve Chappelle and the French magazine artists who are in this party of tourists to England's newest possession are making every artistic effort to draw it into their pictures.

"People will think we're faking it if we mention the rainbow says one artist."

Says one artist.

"But it's there" says another famous artist. "I'm going to put it in." The rainbow was there in truth bending over the little, crushed French town with no one to see it but the English soldiers who peeped out of their trenches at it and the tourists.

All the artists but one are putting in the rainbow. Than one is Estania of Italy and London. A shell broke within fifteen feet of him this afternoon, splashed mud on the picture in which he intended the rainbow to appear, and spoiled it. So now he is drawing a picture of a bursting shell with a correspondent and artists running away from the huge spouting lily of mud. A visit to the Neuve Chappelle is bound to be full of incidents of the sort that attracted Estania's attention. Neuve Chappelle is as thoroughly destroyed as a crushed eggshell. Its only house are dugouts, death fills the space above the trench line; shells criss-cross the sky above it and burst in the ruins. There's nothing more than a shell can do to Neuve Chappelle except to stir up the debris. The shells have ransacked the cemetery; blown open the graves; scattered bits of coffins and fragments of bones over the cemetery lawns and then churned the lawns into a mass of mud, bones coffin bits and fragments of gravestones. Then as if nothing would satisfy their fury, they have blown this mixture into the air and scattered it over all the neighborhood portion of the town Neuve Chappelle (correct) has disappeared, but its name goes down into history as the town which was shelled by 600 cannons; as the town which was fought for, between the English and the Germans at a cost of 100 lives for every ruined house in its streets. The English prize Neuve Chappelle because it is taken of Gen. French's proof that the German in a trench can be routed in an attack. The battle of Neuve Chappelle marked the first attack, on a line of any great extent against entrenched German forces. It is a proof that has put fire into the fighting of both the English and the French.

"It's worlds better now," said an English soldier to me in the trenches this afternoon. "We had stuck in our trenches month after month wondering how strong the fellow across the way really was and now we know. We're out of our old trenches into the new ones in Neuve Chappelle. It's just like that Cowboy and Jack Johnson fight."

I asked him how the two were alike. "Well we serve like the cowboy in the first part of the war and Germany was like Jack Johnson. Germany knew that if she licked us she'd have to do it the early rounds; she couldn't make a long fight of it."

"Well last winter's fighting was just like the early rounds in the cowboy's fight. Can you imagine how worried that cowboy was until he saw Johnson was beginning to get tired? And can you imagine how happy he felt when he found out that all his blows were beginning to worry the big black fellow. Well that was at Neuve Chappelle. Neuve Chappelle showed us. And all of us fellows who were in that fight feel just like Williards must have felt about the 16th wound."

The point of this is not that Neuve Chappelle was interested in the Jack Johnson fight, although the news did flash like shellfire through the trenches in the town as soon as it was received, thirty hours late. The capture of Neuve Chappelle put new hope and new fighting spirit into the English army and into the French army. It put a smile onto the faces of English soldiers that has been worn by the grinding rigors of the winter; it put them into tune with the spring that is turning everything green in trenchland. It will make the French people understand the rainbow in the black cloud which the French artist sketched this afternoon.

A day at Neuve Chappelle including the trip there and back from the English headquarters is an adventure of a lifetime.

He Tells of Remarkable Results From New, Scientific Remedy.

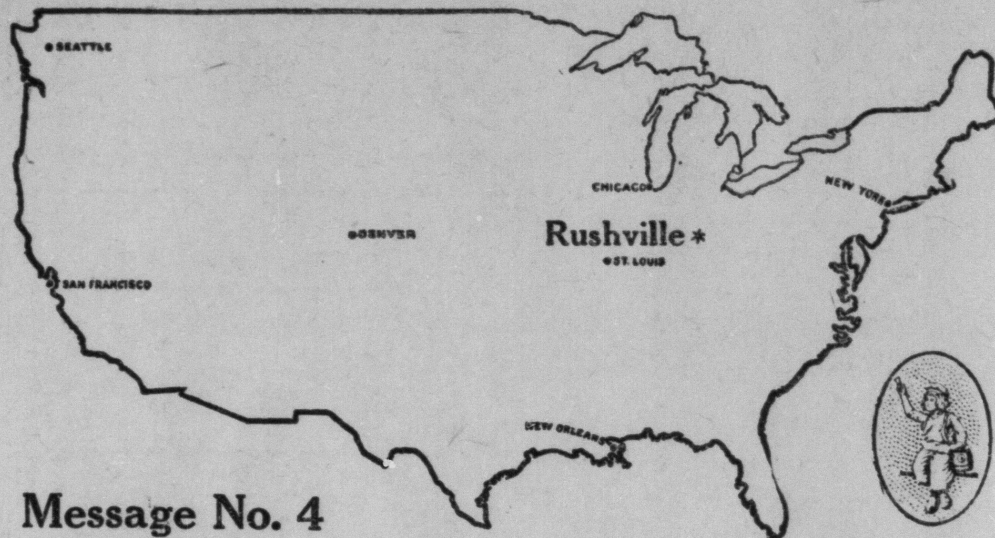

Mr. Chase Litterell of 830 North Arthur street., Rushville, Ind., says: "Some time ago I noticed severe pains across the small of my back. To the Business Men of Rushville

A young doctor, making a start in a small town, decided that to be prosperous he must look prosperous. He bought a new buggy and two good horses. Although he had only a few patients he always kept on the jump, attending to his patients' smallest needs. People began to notice this young doctor driving about town and they called him because he looked busy and prosperous. He got his start—a start that led to a comfortable practice.

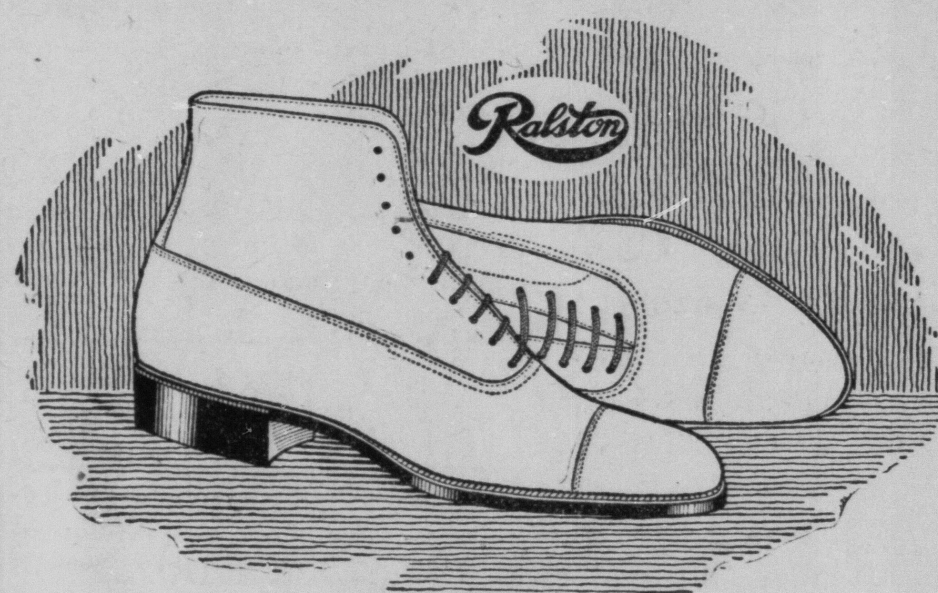

Our town, like this doctor, must look prosperous to be prosperous. Clean streets, attractive store windows, well-painted buildings and dwellings give the prosperous air. Well-painted buildings are greatest of these.

Roosevelt Willing to Return if Progressive Republican Gets Presidential Nomination.

IS AUTHORITY STATEMENT

Frank Knox, Western Manager of Progressive Party in 1912, Makes This Assertion

Arthur Sears Henning, Washington correspondent of the Chicago Tribune sets forth an interesting lot of speculation as to where Col. Theodore Roosevelt will be found fighting in the presidential campaign of 1916. Henning claims that the information he imparts is authoritative. In substance, he says that Col. Roosevelt will be back in Republican fold if the party nominates a progressive Republican. If it nominates a reactionary, the colonel will see what he can do in the way of reviving the progressive party. Henning's article in full follows:

Theodore Roosevelt will get back into the Republican party next year and take with him the remnant of the Progressive party, if—

The Republican national convention nominates a progressive Republican.

But he will remain outside the fold and do his utmost to revive the Progressive party, if—

The Republican national convention nominates a reactionary Republican.

This is an authoritative statement of the attitude of Col Roosevelt concerning which there has been a great deal of speculation during the last fortnight. The statement was prepared and made public by Frank Knox, the western manager of the Progressive party in the 1912 campaign.

In effect this statement is an ultimatum served upon the Republican party by Col. Roosevelt. He puts forth the terms upon which the support of himself and his followers may be obtained in the 1916 presidential election.

That there will be a division of opinion in the Republican party upon the question of accepting or rejecting the ultimatum already is apparent.

The leaders of the Progressive wing have been preaching for some time the necessity of selecting a candidate who can bring the Progressive party members back into the old party. The reactionaries are advising that Roosevelt be ignored. They contend that dissatisfaction with the Wilson administration is so widespread that any Republican can reunite the factions and lead them to victory.

"Col. Roosevelt's attitude right now is a waiting one," Mr. Knox's statement said. "He recognizes the present as a 'hair trigger' situation politically, and he is observing developments with the earnest hope that the position the Republican party will take and its candidates will be such as to permit hearty support of the millions of voters who cast Progressive ballots in 1912 and the million and one-half who persisted in voting the Progressive party ticket in 1914.

"No man has the slightest authority to say that Col. Roosevelt is 'for' this particular candidate or that one. He lacks either the desire or purpose to employ his influence in favor of any candidacy. He has been quoted as friendly to the Weeks boom, as looking with favor on that of Herriek; it is implied that he would regard Root's nomination with pleasure. There is not a vestige of ground for any of the assumptions. It may be said with equal truth that he has not indorsed the candidacy of Senator Cummins nor commented in any way upon the talk of Borah.

"He is simply abiding the progress of events recognizing the vital necessity of a change in administration in order to restore permanent prosperity at home and reestablish American prestige abroad.

"He is keen to aid in the defeat of Wilson and Bryan and is hoping that Republican leadership will be alive to the necessity of a program and a candidate such as will permit a genuine reunion of all the elements which made the party invincible until 1912.

"I feel at liberty to declare that the Republican party may have the tremendous advantage of Roosevelt's aid in restoring harmony and achieving an old time Republican victory if its policy and program is such as will permit those who left the party in 1912 as a protest against ultra-reactionism, to support it.

"While I make these statements wholly on my own authority, I am content to refer any skeptic to Col. Roosevelt himself for confirmation of their substantial accuracy."

It transpires that these views were expressed by Col. Roosevelt at a recent luncheon of Progressive and progressive-Republican leaders. The luncheon was arranged at the instance of the progressive Republican leaders, who wished to learn whether they could count upon the help of Col. Roosevelt and his followers in their fight on the reactionaries. They were more than satisfied with the attitude the colonel disclosed.

Mr. Knox declined to add a syllable to the statement which he framed, although he admitted that he attended the luncheon at which these matters were discussed with Col. Roosevelt.

For another participant in the conference it was learned that Mr. Roosevelt authorized the statement of his position by Mr. Knox.

Mr. Roosevelt, it is known, is in sympathy with the purposes of Senator Borah. The Idaho senator has announced that he is going upon the stump to do some plain talking to the Republicans. He intends to point out the dangers of reaction.

For several months it has been apparent that the progressive element is in danger of losing much if not all of the ground it has won in the last decade. The reactionaries are jubilant over the situation and believe that they will have little difficulty in gaining control of the Republican party.

Senator Borah is going to tell the Republicans that if they allow the reactionaries to run their party they are doomed to certain defeat. Col. Roosevelt also is of this opinion, and now he serves notice that if the reactionaries control he will do his utmost as in 1912, to accomplish Republican defeat.

Friends of Mr. Roosevelt say that he has no intention of becoming a candidate himself. They admit, however, that if a widespread popular demand for his candidacy should develop the colonel undoubtedly would respond.

For several days there have been rumors here that President Wilson might not be a candidate. These were put at rest today by the closest adviser the president possesses, who said:

"The president will be the Democratic candidate and will be elected."

Reports to the effect that a cabal was working in Washington with the view of having Joseph P. Tumulty, private secretary to the president, supersede William F. McCombs as chairman of the Democratic national committee, were denied emphatically by Mr. Tumulty.

Selling Is MORE than Trading Stock for Money!

Selling is part of the scheme of business. Most anyone can sell once, but selling so you can create permanent customers is selling successfully. That is why we carry the large stock of buggies we have on our sample floor for prospective customers or purchasers to make their selections from. They don't have to take something they don't want, as we carry every style of buggy that there is a demand for. Then after the customer has made his selection from our stock we tell him exactly what the buggy is and it has to be just as we represent it or we make it that way. The customer takes no chances. He is sure to get just what he pays for. ONE sale reduces itself to a confidence game unless the buyer is perfectly satisfied. Satisfaction sends a customer away with a smile that won't come off. That is why our buggy business has grown. We have found out how to hold customers after we get them and every satisfied customer is bound to bring a new customer sooner or later. Right now our stock of buggies is complete and if you are needing a buggy come in and make your selection. We have the style you want and we would be glad to have you for one of our satisfied customers. We know you will be glad when you give us your vehicle business, so do it now.

BRITISHERS ARE VERY CONFIDENT

"The Further They Come the Harder They'll Get Whipped" is New Slogan of the Army.

FIERCE FIGHTING ENSUES

English Are Trying to Regain Ground Lost All Along the Line by Severe Onslaughts.

BY WILLIAM G. SHEPHERD.
(By United Press.)

At headquarters of the British Overseas army, Northern France, Sunday April 25.—(Via London April 26.)

The Germans are now bombarding Ypres with 17-inch guns. The roar of these great pieces of artillery, latest product of the Krupp factories, can be heard thirty miles. German incendiary shells have fired all the Belgian farms and villages along a front of 20 miles. Tonight the sky is illuminated with the glare of blazing homes and barns.

The high northerly winds which for three days have been blowing from the German lines across the Anglo-French-Belgian trenches carrying before them the stupefying gases have now died down. There is complete calm tonight and the temper of the allied troops over what they claim the most flagrant breach of civilized warfare of the Germans is most bitter from the highest officers down to the private. The most bitter invective is being used against the Germans.

"The further they come the harder they'll get whipped."

The above phrase, the sharp comment of Field Marshal Sir John French commander-in-chief of the British forces, when apprised that the Germans had hacked their way through to the Ypres canal, is today the slogan of the entire British army.

It represents the supreme confidence of the entire force, regular and volunteer, and is being followed up by an onslaught all along the line to try and recover the ground lost in fighting, that for fierceness has never been equaled in any previous war. The fighting continues to be of the utmost intensity and the reinforcements are being thrown into the battle line at every point where reports of airmen indicate the Germans have massed for renewed assaults.

LAND AND SEA FORCE AT IT

Attempt to Reduce Dardanelles Fortification is Started.

(By United Press.)

Positions Are Lizerne Not Taken by Enemy, War Office Says.

Berlin, (By Wireless to Sayville), April 26.—The Anglo-French claims that the Germans have been thrown back across the Yser canal were definitely and specifically denied by the German war office today. The war office said the positions at Lizerne on the west bank are still in the hands of the Germans. The total number of British prisoners is 5,000, including 1,000 Canadians, and 45 cannon have been captured north of the Yser.

GHOSTS WALKING BEFORE COLONEL

Roosevelt realizes Position of Hamlet Today When Some Revelations Are Made in Trial.

HIS RELATIONS WITH PLATT

Letters Develop he Consulted With "Easy Boss" Concerning Patronage and Other Matters.

(By United Press.)

Syracuse, N. Y., April 26.—Old ghosts today rose to haunt Colonel Roosevelt as a political Hamlet. Political sores of the past were reopened and the dealings of Roosevelt while governor and president with William Barnes and Former Senator Platt, the "easy boss," were bared.

From Platt's executors scores of letters were produced by Barnes to show how Roosevelt worked with Platt, consulted him regarding appointments and state legislation and was hand-in-glove with the Republican machine. The evidence was the most favorable yet given against Roosevelt, yet it seemed not to disturb him greatly.

Roosevelt's sympathy with Barnes opposition to renomination of Governor Hughes was also shown by letters.

"But I felt that the political machine should not be used by the organization even if they have grievances with which I sympathize," Roosevelt qualified.

Roosevelt told how he met Platt and the latter's son Frank frequently at private breakfasts in New York while he was governor, to discuss patronage and other matters. In one letter from Platt's files, the colonel asked that an architect's friend be allowed to bid on a government contract and asked that his friend be allowed to compete.

The Platt letters disclosed in detail their long correspondence, their frequent consultations over appointments and Roosevelt's acquiescence in Platt's wishes in many matters.

WATSON BOOM LOOKING GOOD

Robert G. Tucker, Writing in Cincinnati Enquirer, Says it Has More Serious Aspect.

THAN SOME NOW BELIEVE

Rushville Man in Communication With Many Republicans Who Think he Should be President.

That James E. Watson of this city is receiving encouraging reports from throughout the country from men who believe a campaigner of his type should be the Republican candidate for president in 1916 and that his boom is much more serious than some Republican party workers believe, are assertions made by Robert G. Tucker, in his weekly letter concerning Indiana politics published in the Cincinnati Enquirer Sunday. Concerning the Watson candidacy, he says:

The policy of the Republican state organization will be neutral toward the presidential candidates as long as there is an understanding that Charles W. Fairbanks and James E. Watson may make the race. Very little has been said lately regarding Watson as a presidential prospect, but it is the understanding that he and his close friends are not without hope that he will be nominated at the convention next year.

The Watson boom has a more serious aspect than some of the party workers believe. Watson has received much encouragement from western states. He has been in communication with many Republicans throughout the country who seem to think that a campaigner of his type would measure up to the requirements of 1916.

Among the Indiana Republican leaders the preponderance of the sentiment seems to be that this is the year for Fairbanks, and that he stands a very good show of being nominated. The State Committee, including Chairman Hays and Secretary Henley, has refrained from attempting to promote the interests of Watson or Fairbanks, but as soon as it is determined which shall be the Indiana candidate the organization will be behind him.

Chairman Hays would rather be accused of leaning to far backwards than to be charged with using the organization for any candidate for the Presidency, the Senate or Government. The policy of the committee will be "hands off," where there is more than one candidate for an office. If Chairman Hays can help it the committee will not be accused honestly of trying to say who shall or shall not go on the ticket.

Recently there is said to have been some friction among the close friends of Watson and members of the state organization. The Watson men have been afraid that Chairman Hays would not give Watson the same consideration that other party leaders have received. One well-known Republican was approached by the Watson men with the proposition that he run for Chairman to succeed Hays. He turned it down, stating that he favors Hays and that no one could defeat him.

Some of the Watson men have been inclined to criticize Chairman Hays on the ground that he did not "play up" Watson in the last campaign in a manner commensurate with his ability as an orator. Chairman Hays did not make Watson a headliner, but wherever requests came for speeches by him the committee promptly made the assignments. It is maintained by Chairman Hays' friends that there is no

RUSHVILLE MAN SET FREE TODAY

Harry Rainey Released at Connersville When Man Who Filed Charge Failed to Appear.

A HOLD-UP WAS ALLEGED

(By United Press.)

Connersville, Ind., April 26.—When "Budge" King, of this city, failed to appear in mayor's court this morning, the charge which he preferred against Harry Rainey, of Rushville, was dismissed. King lodged a complaint against Rainey, charging that the Rushville man struck him on the head and stole his money. Rainey was arrested Saturday night and held until this morning when the prosecuting witness was not to be found.

The police believe that there was no foundation for the charge. They think that Rainey and King were likely together Saturday night, and that they possibly quarreled and King caused Rainey's arrest. Two other Rushville men were reported to be implicated, but there were no charges against them.

The grocery store of John Kelly in North Main street was entered some time Saturday night and six dollars taken from the cash drawer. Entrance was gained by forcing a lock on a screen door at the rear of the store. Nothing else of value was missed from the store. Mr. Kelly always left some change in the cash drawer for use on Monday morning and it was this change that was taken.

The police were notified, but as yet have no clew. Saturday night robberies have been a common occurrence now for the past few weeks. One week ago the meat market of Harry Kramer was entered and some money taken from the cash register.

CONDITION NOT DANGEROUS

(By United Press.)

Evansville, Ind., April 26.—Judge A. B. Anderson of the United States district court for Indiana was today seriously ill at the St. George hotel here from ptomaine poisoning. A physician and nurse were in constant attention. His condition was pronounced "serious but not dangerous." His temperature today was 102.

Judge Anderson presided over the celebrated dynamite conspiracy and the Terre Haute election conspiracy cases. It was his ruling more than anything else that brought an end to the libel suit of Theodore Roosevelt against the New York World and the Indianapolis News over the Panama canal controversy.

Judge Anderson was taken ill yesterday at Terre Haute while enroute here to hold court. The court session was today postponed until October. Judge Anderson said he attributed his illness to canned tomatoes eaten in Indianapolis yesterday.

LODGE OBSERVES ITS ANNIVERSARY

Odd Fellows Commemorating Passing of Ninety-Sixth Year Since Its Organization.

GROWN TO 3,000,000 MEMBERS

Hundred and Twenty Members of the Rushville Lodge Hear Sermon by Rev. D. Ira Lambert.

The Rushville lodge of Odd Fellows celebrated the 90th anniversary of its founding Sunday at the First Presbyterian church, the members attending in a body. There were approximately one hundred and twenty present. The Rev. D. Ira Lambert preached a sermon in keeping with the occasion, referring in his remarks to the fact that the lodge had grown from a few members to three million in less than a century.

The special music for the occasion was furnished by a men's chorus, an innovation in musical programs here, and it was greatly appreciated and complimented.

He took his text from Psalm 90, 5-1; "Lord Thou has been our dwelling place in all generations."

"Many of the greatest minds of all ages," he said, "have tried to comprehend life and many are the beautiful poems that have been written upon it. But they all pale into insignificance in comparison with this sublime message of revealed truth, with its infinite and eternal sweep, blending both time and eternity under the sovereign sway of God."

"If we shall rightly understand it we must go back and find it as it springs from God and His image."

"The origin of the soul is with God. He was its original home and He still continues to be its refuge and dwelling place if its owner be subject unto Him. But situated as we are in this world it is a hard thing to brush away all the barriers and be at home with God. And so the soul looks forward and longs not so much for the glories of Heaven as to be at home with God. And it not only looks forward but backward to the home elements that bind it unto God through the beautiful visions of long ago. There is no chord in the harp of life which finds such a universal response in the heart of humanity as that of home. Go where you will and put your ear to the heart throb of humanity, and you will find echoed again and again the sympathies and emotions of home."

"But the trouble is that individuals as a rule fail to understand the true significance of this supreme appeal to their life. After all what is it

What Is Fashion?

Fashion may be described as an evidence of the struggle between class and mass.

Class is ever taking up something new in the effort to be distinctive.

Mass is constantly coming pell mell after.

And so the modes are ever changing. What was new today may be old tomorrow.

The fact that the advertising columns of this newspaper are constantly telling the story of the changing styles make them vitally interesting to the average woman.

She reads because she wants the touch of fashion at her finger tips always.

that constitutes a home? It is not in the wood or brick or stone which constitutes its structure. Not in costly furnishings nor elegant paintings. It is rather the loving hearts and kind deeds which make home, and when these are there the veriest hovel may seem to stretch itself to the very skies and be laden with Golconda splendor and rich with the perfumed breezes of the evening zephyrs.

"But that which stands back of it all is the purity and beauty of the child life as it stands near to God—its first and everlasting dwelling place and underlying all the ambitions of mankind is this undying home element which makes it yearn for a renewal of the things which bind it unto God, in whose image it was made.

"The great need of mankind is that that they may go back and find the home elements of life and ever keep them supreme in all their interests. First, of these stand truth or purity. In the prime of life man often feels that he cannot go back and have renewed this home element of the soul. But while man can never again stand in the place of childhood's innocence, he may go back and find again the home elements of truth and purity. Second, stands the great home element of faith or confidence. 'This is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith.' In the realm of business, in the realm of public life, in the inner recesses of a man's heart this is the great motive power of life. Not only must there be faith in God, but faith in mankind as well. The greatest need of this age is a new confidence in one another. Third, the home element of love is absolutely essential in the home elements of life. Without it the soul can never stand complete. Not only must it be love unto God but love unto our fellowmen. About Ben Adham asked of the angel who wrote the names of those who loved the Lord that he might be recorded simply as one who loved his fellowmen. But when the record was complete about's name stood first amongst those who loved their Lord.

"The key to the best of life is that which unlocks the door of life through the heart of the little child. In the glorious things which were promised by the old prophets through the kingdom which was to be supreme in the glorious days of the golden age to come, the mightiest forces thereof were to be led by the little child. A thousand years later, upon the mountain peaks of thought and feeling the son of God declares that admission into the kingdom can be secured only upon the principles of simplicity of childhood, and again, that he who would be greatest in that kingdom, must become as a little child.

"And so what is needed in the midst of the great battles of life, is that we shall keep awake the elements which bind us back into the purity of the soul as it comes from the hands of God; that we shall never lose sight of that vision, that the image of God may be renewed in us."

RAILWAY EMPLOYEES FIGHTING EMPLOYEES

(By United Press.)

Chicago, Apr. 26.—Chicago ear employees, both on the elevated and surface lines plan an attempt to put their unions on record as opposed to the jitney bus. Resolutions may be adopted calling upon union men and sympathizers throughout the United States to boycott the jitneys because they present a menace to street car employees.

Statistics of the Chicago elevated and surface lines companies show that the profits are made only on short run passengers. The strap hanger always is carried at a hundred per cent profit.

The jitney it is feared, will do away with the strap hanger and will lift the short run passenger from the car. The consequent injury to the street car companies is dreaded by the union men on the theory that lower wages may be an outcome.

Write your "For Sale" ad SIMPLY stating every detail about the article that you would want an ad to give if you were anxious to buy something of the kind yourself. The general understanding is that Chairman Hays, Secretary Henley and practically all of the members of the Republican State Committee will be re-elected without opposition. Henley is an appointee of Chairman Hays and will be retained as Secretary.

Health--How to Preserve It Disease--How to Prevent It

Prepared for the United Press by Dr. J. N. Hurty
State Health Commissioner

(Dr. Hurty will answer questions on prevention of disease, hygiene and sanitation. Questions requiring a personal answer cannot be considered. To avoid delay, address all questions direct to the UNITED PRESS ASSOCIATIONS, 36½ West Washington St., Indianapolis. Answers may be sent to THE DAILY REPUBLICAN if preferred.)

Mouth Breathing

A mouth breather is either sick or deformed. Perhaps both. Deformed teeth, diseased tonsils and adenoids cause mouth breathing. As mouth breathing is very often attended by respiratory diseases and death it behooves parents, who have mouth breathers among their children, to be up and doing. Don't believe a mouth breather "will out grow it." Some doctors say so, but they are ignorant. If your doctor tells you that your child will outgrow deformed teeth, diseased tonsils and adenoids, just pay him what you might owe, and seek one of more recent vintage. No, your mouth breathing child will not outgrow the trouble. Either have him repaired by a good dentist or a good surgeon, or lay aside a sinking fund to pay for his funeral.

Mouth breathing is frequently the cause of constricted chests, stooping shoulders, limited breathing capacity—the forerunners of consumption, bronchitis, laryngitis, sore throat, asthma, heart disease, mental dullness, defective speech and malnutrition.

As a sin of omission is equally as bad as a sin of commission, it therefore follows—if a child is sick or dies from neglect the sin is as great as if it was killed with arsenic or a tomahawk. At present we have laws to punish parents who poison or kill their children by violence and in the not distant future we will have sufficient practical and enlightened laws to punish parents for killing their children through neglect. Even neglect from ignorance itself is a sin and disgrace. And let us note here that strong men seek knowledge and make opportunity and do the right thing. Weak men don't.

Dr. J. N. Hurty.

Women in Arms!

Think of it!
Women in arms—fighting the battles of their country!

The bitterness and horrors of this war should be brought forcibly home to all civilized people by the action of the women of France.

When fighting becomes necessary it is assumed to be the exclusive province of man to engage in the active fray.

And yet this frightful war has reached the stage where the women of Paris are recruiting a regiment of soldiers among their own sex for duty in the field.

Men are needed on the battle line, and this regiment of women soldiers will shoulder their rifles and convey ammunition and provision trains, garrison conquered territory and perform other field duty necessary in order to relieve men who are needed at the front.

Women in arms!

Has the civilization of this world fallen so low that the mother of man must sink her sex and expose her fair breast to the mutilation of shot and shell?

Must she face the horrors of the battlefield the rigors of a campaign and the pestilence of armed camps in order that kings, emperors and fools may satiate their cravings for official murder?

Women in arms!

Is the lust of man for power so great that the sacredness of womanhood must be brushed aside, her frailty trampled in the dust, her privacy outraged by the glare of camp life?

God forbid!

The patriotism of these women is sublime!

It has few parallels in history.

But what a disgrace to mankind—what a blow to our blood-spattered civilization!

Women Are Active

That the women of Indiana will be a force to be contended with in the next campaign is indicated by activity apparent already within the Legislative Council of Indiana Women. A plan has been devised to ask each affiliated organization to prepare data on legislation it desires at the next meeting of the legislature. It is also proposed that the number of delegates from each affiliated organization be increased from two to five, the question to be decided at the October meeting.

Suggestions for a community meeting in every rural school in the state have been made to further the work of the council. The meetings would be held in co-operation with the school authorities and the program would include a discussion of the Indiana primary law. It is planned to distribute the record of candidates in each district over the state.

What Our Neighbors Are Talking About

A Word of Caution

(Washington Herald)

Republicans all should unite, we think, in insisting that the candidates and their active supporters shall not lose sight of the important fact that it is the duty of the partisans in the primaries to conduct themselves that what is said and done in these primaries may not militate against the success of the nominees in the succeeding election. We all should remember, first of all, that the preliminary contests are among Republicans and that the candidates are republicans. It will not be an easy thing to avoid in the heat of the canvass acts that necessarily will lead to embarrassing situations after tickets are named. But if all of us will make up our minds to counsel fairness and advise and practice moderation and tolerance, much of the danger may be escaped.

The Republican newspapers may do a great deal to promote harmony in the primaries, not only by timely admonitions, but by setting proper examples. It is too much to expect that the Republican papers of the state will preserve a neutrality which shall make for absolute impartiality, however desirable that might be from a point of view entirely politic. But they can refrain from personalities, and without the newspapers as vehicles for the distribution of their extreme opinions, the more excitable of the partisans will be under a throttling handicap. The newspapers are masters of the situation, if they will but use their good offices.

So that all of us are under obligation to reserve our most effective fire for the common enemy, making our family fights pillow fights only to the end that nothing shall obstruct the progress to the common goal for which we are striving, the restoration of the Republican party to national and state control. The statewide direct primary is not a theory now but a condition, however distasteful it may be to the greater part of the citizens of Indiana. Therefore, let us be sane and dignified, and not make a Kilkenny cat fight out of it. Every thrust among the Republicans in the primaries is sure to be met by a parry and this followed by a counter thrust, and it would be a most foolish policy for us to cut up our own forces.

HOOSIER HISTORY

(Prepared by the United Press from Records in State Library)

Since the first occupation of Indiana the agricultural industry has been one of the most important. At one national corn show in 1907 out of the 8,000 exhibits from all corn growing states Indiana corn was declared superior, taking 26 prizes. The advent of the canning industry has stimulated farming to such an extent that it is estimated more than 2,900,000 bushels of tomatoes are needed each year from the farms to supply the canners. Agriculture has been added to the school curriculum.

NEW POLITICAL ERA IN CHICAGO

William Hale Thompson Elected by Largest Plurality Ever Given to be Inaugurated Tonight.

HAS SEVERAL NEW POLICIES

Plans to Make Big Fight Against Unemployed—Intends to Have Good Police Force

(By United Press.)

Chicago, Apr. 26.—Elected mayor of Chicago by the greatest plurality ever given a major candidate in the Windy City, William Hale Thompson tonight will be formally inaugurated head of America's second largest city. Retiring Mayor Carter H. Harrison, was to welcome his successor and conduct the simple but impressive ceremonies.

Thompson enters into his duties with several radical and unique policies in regard to alleviation of the unemployment problem, conduct of the city's affairs, and police warfare on crime and criminals.

Perhaps the most unique policy the new mayor has declared for, is his planned fight against unemployment. It is his expressed plan to have the council vote a sum sufficient to give every patrolman on the street a dollar bill. This dollar is to be given, at the policeman's discretion, to men or women out of work, whom the policeman knows to be deserving. Thompson's theory is that the policeman is closer to the average citizen than all the charity organization agents in the world and is thereby the one to do such work. When this dollar is expended, it will be replaced.

As to the business side of conducting the affairs of the fourth city in the world, Thompson has declared he will endeavor, wherever possible, to surround himself with successful business men, large or small who will be willing to emulate his example and give up four years of their lives to the work of the city.

Mayor Thompson has strong opinions regarding Chicago's crime situation. He has not yet gone into detail as to what his remedies for the wholesale robberies, street hold-ups etc., will be, but he has said that crime and immorality can and must be checked by a honest and efficient police force. He intimated that he would try to get as chief of police a man regardless of political affiliation, who can be absolutely fearless in upholding the laws.

and Put Out of Business.

(By United Press.)

Chicago, Apr. 26.—The government and the alleged bill posting "trust" grappled today. Before Judge Kenesaw Mountain Landis, who plastered the $29,000,000 fine on the Standard Oil, trial was scheduled today of the government's anti-trust dissolution suit against the bill posting combination, known as the "association of Bill Posters and Distributors in the United States and Canada."

Control of practically all the outdoor display and billboard advertising in the two countries by the "trust" is charged by the government which has secured dozens of depositions from big advertisers said to have been victimized and "held up."

United States District Attorney Clynne, in charge of the prosecution, says it will be proven that seven advertising concerns collect one sixth in all advertising contracts of the combination and cover 3,500 towns, and no outsider can get a foot on space without dealing with them.

The concerns named as the controlling factors of the association are the Associated Bill Posters and Protective Co. of New York; A.M. Briggs & Co., of Chicago; Nordem & Co., of Pittsburgh; Foster Selling Co., of St. Louis; Enos Troop, Inc., of Chicago; A. de Montzulin & Co. of Cincinnati; and C. E. Atkinson & Co. of Atlanta.

The government alleges that 32 former concerns interested in the business have been "gobbled up" and put out of business by the trust.

GIBBONS TO FIGHT AT 145 POUNDS

Followers Say he Will be Weakened
at This Weight in His Fight
With McFarland

BATTLE IS FOR TEN ROUNDS

BY JAMES O'DEA

Chicago, Apr. 26.—In both McFarland and Gibbons camps chief talk these days is about poundage. The followers of the scientific stockyards marvel contend that at 145 pounds, the weight agreed upon in the contract that calls for a ten round battle within a few weeks, Gibbons will be greatly weakened. To offset this argument Gibbons followers today pointed to their favorite's knockout of Young Ahearn and to the fight in which he handed a sleep wallop to Young Mike Donovan. Gibbons weighed in at 145 just before each of these scraps. He also weighed 145 when he dropped Wildcat Ferns for the count.

The Gibbons followers frankly admit Packey's prowess and skill, but there enters into the argument the old question of what the cleverest can and cannot do after the long absence that McFarland has had from the ring.

However, much the fighters and their managers may differ in regard to the outcome of the battle, they agree on one important matter. That is the size of the purse. Bidding between Milwaukee and New York managers was active within twelve hours after the agreement was announced and close to a record sum for a 10-round battle was expected from the start.

STATE MEETING MAY COME HERE

Boom For Rushville For F. A. M.
State Convention in July is
Sarted Sunday.

GASOLINE ECONOMY TEST

Riverside Track, Best in Indiana, is
Drawing Card That Rushville
Has to Offer.

With the meeting here Sunday of 100 motorcycleists for a gasoline economy test under the direction of the F. A. M., the official governing body of the motorcycle world, movement was started to bring the state convention of the F. A. M. to this city. The convention will likely be held sometime in July and will be a three day's event. The state convention has always been held in Indianapolis, but with Rushville possessing the best mile track in the state at Riverside park, the members yesterday started a movement to bring the event here.

J. C. Ellerman has charge of the local end of the arrangements and is confident that he can bring the state convention to Rushville if given the right kind of encouragement. The mile track at Riverside is the best in the state, according to experienced riders of motorcycles, and the crowd of 100 that was here Sunday were elated over drawing the meet to this city. Definite arrangements are expected in a few days.

The state convention of the F. A. M. is a big thing and would attract motorcycle men to this city from all over the state. Sixty riders from Indianapolis and twenty-five from Richmond were in the crowd that was here yesterday. Visitors were also here from Greensburg, Shelbyville and all the surrounding towns. A large crowd gathered at Riverside to watch the tests.

No speed tests were indulged in, the riders sticking closely to the economy tests. The winner of the sidecar event, carrying an extra passenger, went twelve and three-quarter mile on a quart of gasoline, other cars in the event averaged about twelve and one-quarter miles to a quart.

The twin cylinder machines averaged twelve and one-half miles to twelve and three-quarter miles to the pint of gasoline. The highest record made for a single cylinder machine was thirty-one miles on a quart of gasoline. Other records averaged up to twenty-six miles on a single quart of gasoline. In making these about fifty miles an hour.

START FIGHT ON VOTING MACHINES

Political Leaders at Terre Haute
Are Now Dead Opposed to
This Form of Balloting

IT CAN BE MANIPULATED

(By United Press.)

Terre Haute, Ind., April 26.—Local political leaders representing the new era for Terre Haute are busily engaged in fostering sentiment against the voting machine—and this despite the fact that the Indiana Supreme Court only recently interpreted the election laws to the effect that the voting machine is legal.

The legal machine can be manipulated; it does not safeguard Mr. Voter; it is the ready tool of the corrupt politician, say these new leaders, and it must go.

"The disclosure by election crooks in the Indianapolis election corruption conspiracy trial have taken away whatever confidence might previously have been felt that the machines could not be tampered with," says an editorial in a local paper. "Since the trial of Roberts and his fellow conspirators at Indianapolis, there is no doubt that the machines can be 'fixed.' The voting machine must go. The most that ever could be said in their favor was that they made possible quick election returns. But why so much haste especially since it has been proved that haste is at the expense of honest and careful voting?"

OPTION ELECTION TODAY AT ELKHART

City is Voting for Fourth Time on
Liquor Question With 20
Saloons Involved

"WET" THREE TIMES BEFORE

(By United Press.)

Elkhart, Ind., April 26.—This city was today voting in its fourth local option election with twenty-two saloons involved. In the three preceding elections the dries have been shown a gradual gain, but unless the gain is more rapid this time the wets will win by nearly 200 votes.

The wet majorities in the three earlier elections were as follows: in 1909, 806; in 1911, 458; in 1913, 305.

Goshen in the same county, was an interested bystander today. Goshen votes May 3 on the fate of its eleven saloons. Should Elkhart vote wet it might turn Goshen that way, although the wet majority in Goshen in 1913 was only 32 votes.

Elkhart county went dry under the county unit law, but when that was repealed Goshen and Elkhart voted wet.

JITNEY DRIVERS ARE WORKING FOR THEMSELVES

(By United Press.)

Kansas City, Apr. 26.—Over three hundred individuals are in the rapid transit business here. That means that three hundred men are running their own jitneys—are in business for themselves.

At the recent hearing on a proposed drastic jitney ordinance several women appeared for their husbands demanding that the ordinance be killed and explaining that their husbands had been out of work when the jitney craze arrived; that they mortgaged their homes to buy a second hand car and were now independent and doing a good business.

Perhaps fifty of the cars in operation are owned by auto livery firms but with no franchise required to operate, the field remains open so that every man with a few hundred dollars capital can go into business for himself. Heretofore the rapid transit business was only for capitalists.

Our citizens are telling the good news of their experience with this tested remedy. Here is an example worth reading:

When I stooped, I thought my back would break. Someone advised me to try Doan's Kidney Pills and I got a box. I was very much surprised at the prompt way in which they stopped the trouble. ## CANAL ROUTE IS STILL IN DOUBT

Board of Army Engineers Receive Report of Recent Survey But Refuse to Comment

BELIEVE IT WILL BE BUILT

South Bend and Michigan City Pulling for Northern Route—From Toledo to Chicago

Fort Wayne, Ind., April 26.—Although the members of the board of army engineers met here today to receive the reports of Captain Lewis H. Watkins, who has had charge of the government survey of routes for the proposed Toledo Fort Wayne and Chicago barge canal, it was explained that no decision as to the feasibility of the canal will be forthcoming from the board at this or any other time. Major P. S. Bond, of Cleveland explained that the board does not make the decision, but reports its findings to the secretary of war who makes such recommendations to congress as he sees fit. The preliminary surveys have cost about $50,000.

Members of the board who were here today included Col. W. V. Judson of Chicago, Major Bond and Col. Millis of Newport, R. I.

The board members would not be interviewed today concerning the canal. They said that their only confidential would be General D. C. Kingman, chief of engineers. They are expected to report favorably for the canal.

Boosters of the canal project have little doubt, however that the recommendations of the army board will favor the canal. One of the questions still in doubt is the route of the canal. There are two proposed routes, the southern and the northern. The southern route includes Huntington, Wabash and Rochester, three cities that have been working hard for the waterway. It is believed that if the canal is viewed favorably the southern route will be chosen. Fort Wayne is neutral in this controversy, for it will get the canal with either route. The Chicago Association of Commerce however, is pulling for the southern route.

South Bend, on the other hand, is pulling with Michigan City for the northern route.

Perry A. Randall, president of the Erie and Michigan Deep Waterways association, illustrating the utility of the proposed canal, said:

"The highest rate charged for hauling freight by railroad is at least $4 a ton per thousand miles. The same ton can be hauled a thousand miles over the Chicago barge for $2 per ton. The canal will have a yearly carrying capacity of 40,000,000 tons, it is understood, and figuring on this basis, the saving in one year in rates would be $80,000,000, a sum equal to the entire cost of building the canal if the United States government is required to pay every cent of the expenses from Toledo to Chicago."

Never since the canal was first proposed seven years ago has there been such enthusiasm for it, according to Mr. Randall. He says he has received assurance that every congressman from New York, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Ohio, Indiana, and Illinois will vote for an appropriation to build the waterway.

COMPARED TO BIG RAILROADS

Just as Great Trans-Continental Lines Are Laid Across Country, So Are Trenches Built.

PASS-THROUGH SMALL TOWNS

Visit to Neuve Chappelle, Which is Now on "The Main Line," is Fully Described.

NOTE: The following is the first of a series of stories from the British front, written by William C. Shepherd, United Press staff correspondent, and the only American representing an individual American press organization who is now with General Sir John French's army under official credentials.

The second story in the series will be printed Tuesday.

BY WILLIAM C. SHEPHERD. (Copyright 1915 by United Press.) (U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

(Copyrighted in Great Britain.) With the British Army, Northern France, April 16 (By mail to New York—Neuve Chappelle is the new head that General French has just threaded onto the 400 mile string of trenches which Madame Europe wears upon her breast.

Just as the great trans-continental railroads of the United States pass impressively through small towns, so the great trans-continental trenches have had their route bent by the great English general to take in the town of Neuve Chappelle.

I find the residents of the city extremely proud of the distinction. This is probably because they personally helped General French in his task of trench bending. There are no French people remaining here; in fact there are no houses remaining. This showery afternoon a rainbow is shining on a huge black cloud over Neuve Chappelle and the French magazine artists who are in this party of tourists to England's newest possession are making every artistic effort to draw it into their pictures.

"People will think we're faking it if we mention the rainbow says one artist."

Says one artist. "But it's there" says another famous artist. "I'm going to put it in." The rainbow was there in truth bending over the little, crushed French town with no one to see it but the English soldiers who peeped out of their trenches at it and the tourists.

All the artists but one are putting in the rainbow. Than one is Estania of Italy and London. A shell broke within fifteen feet of him this afternoon, splashed mud on the picture in which he intended the rainbow to appear, and spoiled it. So now he is drawing a picture of a bursting shell with a correspondent and artists running away from the huge spouting lily of mud. A visit to the Neuve Chappelle is bound to be full of incidents of the sort that attracted Estania's attention. Neuve Chappelle is as thoroughly destroyed as a crushed eggshell. Its only house are dugouts, death fills the space above the trench line; shells criss-cross the sky above it and burst in the ruins. There's nothing more than a shell can do to Neuve Chappelle except to stir up the debris. The shells have ransacked the cemetery; blown open the graves; scattered bits of coffins and fragments of bones over the cemetery lawns and then churned the lawns into a mass of mud, bones coffin bits and fragments of gravestones. Then as if nothing would satisfy their fury, they have blown this mixture into the air and scattered it over all the neighborhood portion of the town Neuve Chappelle (correct) has disappeared, but its name goes down into history as the town which was shelled by 600 cannons; as the town which was fought for, between the English and the Germans at a cost of 100 lives for every ruined house in its streets. The English prize Neuve Chappelle because it is taken of Gen. French's proof that the German in a trench can be routed in an attack. The battle of Neuve Chappelle marked the first attack on a line of any great extent against entrenched German forces. It is a proof that has put fire into the fighting of both the English and the French.

"It's worlds better now," said an English soldier to me in the trenches this afternoon. "We had stuck in our trenches month after month wondering how strong the fellow across the way really was and now we know. We're out of our old trenches into the new ones in Neuve Chappelle. It's just like that Cowboy and Jack Johnson fight."

I asked him how the two were alike. "Well we serve like the cowboy in the first part of the war and Germany was like Jack Johnson. Germany knew that if she licked us she'd have to do it the early rounds; she couldn't make a long fight of it."

"Well last winter's fighting was just like the early rounds in the cowboy's fight. Can you imagine how worried that cowboy was until he saw Johnson was beginning to get tired? And can you imagine how happy he felt when he found out that all his blows were beginning to worry the big black fellow. Well that was at Neuve Chappelle. Neuve Chappelle showed us. And all of us fellows who were in that fight feel just like Williards must have felt about the 16th round."

The point of this is not that Neuve Chappelle was interested in the Jack Johnson fight, although the news did flash like shellfire through the trenches in the town as soon as it was received, thirty hours late. The capture of Neuve Chappelle put new hope and new fighting spirit into the English army and into the French army. It put a smile onto the faces of English soldiers that has been worn by the grinding rigors of the winter; it put them into tune with the spring that is turning everything green in trenchland. It will make the French people understand the rainbow in the black cloud which the French artist sketched this afternoon.

A day at Neuve Chappelle including the trip there and back from the English headquarters is an adventure of a lifetime.

HOW RUSHVILLE MAN CURED HIS BACKACHE

He Tells of Remarkable Results From New, Scientific Remedy.

Mr. Chase Litterell of 830 North Arthur street, Rushville, Ind., says: "Some time ago I noticed severe pains across the small of my back. My kidneys were off in action and the Kidney secretions were highly colored. I suffered continually with the backache. At night it was impossible for me to control my kidneys and I would have to get up very often. For these ills I got a box of Lloyd's Kidney & Rheumatism Tablets, the new scientific prescription. The results were fine. I was surprised that any medicine would give such quick relief. Lloyd's relieved me instantly and I have not had a return of the trouble. I am sure that others would find quick relief in Lloyd's. I did."

Message No. 4

To the Business Men of Rushville

A young doctor, making a start in a small town, decided that to be prosperous he must look prosperous. He bought a new buggy and two good horses. Although he had only a few patients he always kept on the jump, attending to his patients' smallest needs. People began to notice this young doctor driving about town and they called him because he looked busy and prosperous. He got his start—a start that led to a comfortable practice.

Our town, like this doctor, must look prosperous to be prosperous. Clean streets, attractive store windows, well-painted buildings and dwellings give the prosperous air. Well-painted buildings are greatest of these.

Roosevelt Willing to Return if Progressive Republican Gets Presidential Nomination.

IS AUTHORATIVE STATEMENT

Frank Knox, Western Manager of Progressive Party in 1912, Makes This Assertion

Arthur Sears Henning, Washington correspondent of the Chicago Tribune sets forth an interesting lot of speculation as to where Col. Theodore Roosevelt will be found fighting in the presidential campaign of 1916. Henning claims that the information he imparts is authoritative. In substance, he says that Col. Roosevelt will be back in Republican fold if the party nominates a progressive Republican. If it nominates a reactionary, the colonel will see what he can do in the way of reviving the progressive party. Henning's article in full follows:

Theodore Roosevelt will get back into the Republican party next year and take with him the remnant of the Progressive party, if—

The Republican national convention nominates a progressive Republican.

But he will remain outside the fold and do his utmost to revive the Progressive party, if—

The Republican national convention nominates a reactionary Republican.

This is an authoritative statement of the attitude of Col Roosevelt concerning which there has been a great deal of speculation during the last fortnight. The statement was prepared and made public by Frank Knox, the western manager of the Progressive party in the 1912 campaign.

In effect this statement is an ultimatum served upon the Republican party by Col. Roosevelt. He puts forth the terms upon which the support of himself and his followers may be obtained in the 1916 presidential election.

That there will be a division of opinion in the Republican party upon the question of accepting or rejecting the ultimatum already is apparent.

The leaders of the Progressive wing have been preaching for some time the necessity of selecting a candidate who can bring the Progressive party members back into the old party. The reactionaries are advising that Roosevelt be ignored. They contend that dissatisfaction with the Wilson administration is so widespread that any Republican can reunite the factions and lead them to victory.

"Col. Roosevelt's attitude right now is a waiting one," Mr. Knox's statement said. "He recognizes the present as a 'hair trigger' situation politically, and he is observing developments with the earnest hope that the position the Republican party will take and its candidates will be such as to permit heavy support of the millions of voters who cast Progressive ballots in 1912 and the million and one-half who persisted in voting the Progressive party ticket in 1914.

"No man has the slightest authority to say that Col. Roosevelt is 'for' this particular candidate or that one. He lacks either the desire or purpose to employ his influence in favor of any candidacy. He has been quoted as 'friendly' to the Weeks boom, as looking with favor on that of Herriek; it is implied that he would regard Root's nomination with pleasure. There is not a vestige of ground for any of the assumptions. It may be said with equal truth that he has not endorsed the candidacy of Senator Cummins nor commented in any way upon the talk of Borah.

"He is simply abiding the progress of events recognizing the vital necessity of a change in administration in order to restore permanent prosperity at home and reestablish American prestige abroad.

"He is keen to aid in the defeat of Wilson and Bryan and is hoping that Republican leadership will be alive to the necessity of a program and a candidate such as will permit a genuine reunion of all the elements which made the party invincible until 1912.

"I feel at liberty to declare that the Republican party may have the tremendous advantage of Roosevelt's aid in restoring harmony and achieving an old time Republican victory if its policy and program is such as will permit those who left the party in 1912 as a protest against ultra-reactionarism, to support it.

"While I make these statements wholly on my own authority, I am content to refer any skeptic to Col. Roosevelt himself for confirmation of their substantial accuracy."

It transpires that these views were expressed by Col. Roosevelt at a recent luncheon of Progressive and progressive-Republican leaders. The luncheon was arranged at the instance of the progressive Republican leaders, who wished to learn whether they could count upon the help of Col. Roosevelt and his followers in their fight on the reactionaries. They were more than satisfied with the attitude the colonel disclosed.

Mr. Knox declined to add a syllable to the statement which he framed, although he admitted that he attended the luncheon at which these matters were discussed with Col. Roosevelt.

For another participant in the conference it was learned that Mr. Roosevelt authorized the statement of his position by Mr. Knox.

Mr. Roosevelt, it is known, is in sympathy with the purposes of Senator Borah. The Idaho senator has announced that he is going upon the stump to do some plain talking to the Republicans. He intends to point out the dangers of reaction.

For several months it has been apparent that the progressive element is in danger of losing much if not all of the ground it has won in the last decade. The reactionaries are jubilant over the situation and believe that they will have little difficulty in gaining control of the Republican party.

Senator Borah is going to tell the Republicans that if they allow the reactionaries to run their party they are doomed to certain defeat. Col. Roosevelt also is of this opinion, and now he serves notice that if the reactionaries control he will do his utmost, as in 1912, to accomplish Republican defeat.

Friends of Mr. Roosevelt say that he has no intention of becoming a candidate himself. They admit, however, that if a widespread popular demand for his candidacy should develop the colonel, undoubtedly would respond.

For several days there have been rumors here that President Wilson might not be a candidate. These were put at rest today by the closest adviser the president possesses, who said:

"The president will be the Democratic candidate and will be elected."

Reports to the effect that a cabal was working in Washington with the view of having Joseph P. Tumulty, private secretary to the president, supersede William F. McCombs as chairman of the Democratic national committee, were denied emphatically by Mr. Tumulty.

Selling Is MORE than Trading Stock for Money!

Selling is part of the scheme of business. Most anyone can sell once, but selling so you can create permanent customers is selling successfully. That is why we carry the large stock of buggies we have on our sample floor for prospective customers or purchasers to make their selections from. They don't have to take something they don't want, as we carry every style of buggy that there is a demand for. Then after the customer has made his selection from our stock we tell him exactly what the buggy is and it has to be just as we represent it or we make it that way. The customer takes no chances. He is sure to get just what he pays for. ONE sale reduces itself to a confidence game unless the buyer is perfectly satisfied. Satisfaction sends a customer away with a smile that won't come off. That is why our buggy business has grown. We have found out how to hold customers after we get them and every satisfied customer is bound to bring a new customer sooner or later. Right now our stock of buggies is complete and if you are needing a buggy come in and make your selection. We have the style you want and we would be glad to have you for one of our satisfied customers. We know you will be glad when you give us your vehicle business, so do it now.

AUSTRIAN LINE HOLDS.

(By United Press.) Vienna, April 24.—(By Wireless through Berlin to Sayville.) This is the claim made at headquarters.

BRITISHERS ARE VERY CONFIDENT

"The Further They Come the Harder They'll Get Whipped" is New Slogan of the Army.

FIERCE FIGHTING ENSUES

English Are Trying to Regain Ground Lost All Along the Line by Severe Onslaughts.

BY WILLIAM G. SHEPHERD
(By United Press.) At headquarters of the British Overseas army, Northern France, Sunday April 25.—(Via London April 26.)

The Germans are now bombarding Ypres with 17-inch guns. The roar of these great pieces of artillery, latest product of the Krupp factories, can be heard thirty miles. German incendiary shells have fired all the Belgian farms and villages along a front of 20 miles. Tonight the sky is illuminated with the glare of blazing homes and barns.

The high northerly winds which for three days have been blowing from the German lines across the Anglo-French-Belgian trenches carrying before them the stupefying gases have now died down. There is complete calm tonight and the temper of the allied troops over what they claim the most flagrant breach of civilized warfare of the Germans is most bitter from the highest officers down to the private. The most bitter invective is being used against the Germans.

"The further they come the harder they'll get whipped."

The above phrase, the sharp comment of Field Marshal Sir John French commander-in-chief of the British forces, when apprised that the Germans had hacked their way through the Ypres canal, is today the slogan of the entire British army.

It represents the supreme confidence of the entire force, regular and volunteer, and is being followed up by an onslaught all along the line to try and recover the ground lost in fighting, that for fierceness has never been equaled in any previous war. The fighting continues to be of the utmost intensity and the reinforcements are being thrown into the battle line at every point where reports of airmen indicate the Germans have massed for renewed assaults.

LAND AND SEA FORCE AT IT

Attempt to Reduce Dardanelles Fortification is Started.

(By United Press.) London, April 26.—The attempt of the allies to reduce the Turkish fortifications guarding the Dardanelles by a combined land and sea expedition already has commenced. The war office and admiralty in a brief message issued late today stated "We have landed a large force on the Gallipoli."

STILL IN GERMAN HANDS

Positions Are Lizerne Not Taken by Enemy, War Office Says.

Berlin, (By Wireless to Sayville), April 26.—The Anglo-French claims that the Germans have been thrown back across the Yser canal were definitely and specifically denied by the German war office today. The war office said the positions at Lizerne on the west bank are still in the hands of the Germans. The total number of British prisoners is 5,000, including 1,000 Canadians, and 45 cannon have been captured north of the Yser.

GHOSTS WALKING BEFORE COLONEL

Roosevelt realizes Position of Hamlet Today When Some Revelations Are Made in Trial.

HIS RELATIONS WITH PLATT

Letters Develop he Consulted With "Easy Boss" Concerning Patronage and Other Matters.

(By United Press.) Syracuse, N. Y., April 26.—Old ghosts today rose to haunt Colonel Roosevelt as a political Hamlet. Political sores of the past were reopened and the dealings of Roosevelt while governor and president with William Barnes and Former Senator Platt, the "easy boss," were bared.

From Platt's executors scores of letters were produced by Barnes to show how Roosevelt worked with Platt, consulted him regarding appointments and state legislation and was hand-in-glove with the Republican machine. The evidence was the most favorable yet given against Roosevelt, yet it seemed not to disturb him greatly.

Roosevelt's sympathy with Barnes opposition to renomination of Governor Hughes was also shown by letters.

"But I felt that the political machine should not be used by the organization even if they have grievances with which I sympathize," Roosevelt qualified.

Roosevelt told how he met Platt and the latter's son Frank frequently at private breakfasts in New York while he was governor, to discuss patronage and other matters. In one letter from Platt's files, the colonel asked that an architect's friend be allowed to bid on a government contract and asked that his friend be allowed to compete.

The Platt letters disclosed in detail their long correspondence, their frequent consultations over appointments and Roosevelt's acquiescence in Platt's wishes in many matters.
